Grand Opening of SinoCorrugated 2017 First Day Review of the Industry Gathering

SinoCorrugated 2017 had its grand opening on 11th of April at the Shanghai New International Exhibition Centre. There have been 14527 domestic and international visitors to SinoCorrugated 2017; 8077 domestic and international visitors to SinoFoldingCarton 2017; and 3663 domestic and international visitors to China Packaging Container Expo 2017 who have visited the Exhibition on the first show day.

Across an exhibition area of up to 110,000 square meters, exhibitors from all around the world were showcasing over 1,800 pieces of corrugated manufacturing equipment including over 1,200 kinds of consumables. The first day showed clearly that SinoCorrugated continues to play an important role in accelerating the growth of the world corrugated industry. This year, the show welcomed a large number of professionals from dynamic markets like Latin America, the Middle East, Africa as well as South East Asia. Furthermore already the first day offered several on-site and off-site events.

The week will continue with highlights like the Corrugated World Forum (12th of April), the Global Digital Forum (11-13.04), the TAPPI International Seminar (12-13.04), the Global Conference of Global Corrugated Industry Trade Agents (12th of April), the India

Day (12th of April), the Latin America Day (12th of April) and many more activities.
