PRO CARTON

STUDENT VIDEO AWARD 2022

We are looking for creative students that help us tell the world about the benefits of cartons and cartonboard. The video should creatively promote or explain one or more benefits of cartons / cartonboard and there is €5,000 to be won!

All students enrolled at a European school/university on a recognized full-time educational course are welcome to join the Pro Carton Student Video Award.

The Pro Carton Student Video Award is a European competition for video storytelling about cartons and cartonboard. The award is open for entries now and it's free to enter!

Cartonboard and cartons are an economically and ecologically balanced packaging medium, and we want students to help us spread the word!

The video should promote or explain one or more of the benefits of cartons (or cartonboard) in a creative way and there's €5,000 to be won.

Students enrolled in a European school/college can enter the competition. Teachers can also make the award a course project. Find out more.

New this year: we've decided to introduce public voting for the best videos of 2022! Thanks to Reno de Medici for sponsoring the amazing prizes.

The European competition for video storytelling about cartons and cartonboard is now open for submissions until June 26!

THE DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES IS 26 JUNE 2022.
